Naturopathic Doctors in Lloydminster - Naturopath and Chiropractor Richard Bartlett first developed during the year 1997, a transformative healing system known as Matrix Energetics after undergoing a life-altering event. Dr. Bartlett discovered that he can reinstate emotional, physical, spiritual and mental balance in people with gentle touching with focused intent. As an additional bonus, he was able to correct misalignments that had bothered some of his clients for numerous years. Richard discovered that he could teach anybody this technique which combines subtle energy along with quantum physics, focused intent, and active imagination.

The body is a resonating matrix that has a biological field of information. According to the philosophy behind Matrix Energetics, the patterns in this matrix can become disrupted through emotional or physical injury. These disruptions can cause embedded perceptions or habits which could block an individual from obtaining a state of health, happiness, prosperity and other constructive circumstances. Matrix Energetics works to eliminate blockages, shift these embedded patterns and transform core beliefs in order to allow the person to reach their goals in order to create the quality of life and sort of life desired.

Practitioners of Matrix Energetics believe that the restrictions are the cause of a patient's issues and that the healing system of Matrix Energetics could instantly remove these limitations. This particular healing system is believed to get rid of the causes of both chronic and temporary problems like headaches, muscle spasms, scoliosis, fibromyalgia, and emotional trauma among others.

The Matrix Energetics system is designed to stand alone. Numerous practitioners use it to be able to improve various healing methods though it does not have to be at all combined along with any other method. A single session with a Matrix Energetics practitioner is capable of changing the belief system of the customer and can alter her or his beliefs concerning the structure of reality, the nature of disease and the healing process. Commonly, recipients can feel a wave pass through their bodies because their previous view of actuality is transformed and this is where the Matrix Energetics system enters into the realm of quantum physics.

Space and time are not a part of actuality at the quantum level. An individual's consciousness can affect how subatomic particles behave, according to the quantum theory. Because the universe is interconnected with quanta, or tiny wave particles of information, that can be transferred at a rate faster than the speed of light, these quanta can appear everywhere concurrently and even move forward and backward in time. A person's consciousness can affect these quanta to alter emotions and physical matter. This information and these views have been incorporated into the Matrix Energetics treatments and are responsible for the shifts that occur on the cellular level in the client.
